The screenshot shows a Zoom poll window titled "Financial Management Decisions" with a status of "in Progress" and a timer at 2:47. Below the title bar, it states "Attendees are now viewing questions" and "1 of 1 (100%) voted". The poll contains two questions:

1. Which description best matches Capital Structure?

- Determining which long-term investment projects the business should consider (0) 0%
- Determining how to pay for long-term investment projects (1) 100%
- Determining the best way to manage the day-to-day finances of the business. (0) 0%

2. Which description best matches Working Capital Management?

- Determining which long-term investment projects the business should consider (1) 100%
- Determining how to pay for long-term investment projects (0) 0%

At the bottom of the poll window is a blue button labeled "End Polling".

On the right side of the Zoom interface, the "Participants" list shows "Angela M Brown (Host, me)" and "Sample Student". At the bottom right, there are buttons for "Invite" and "Mute All".

Blue arrows point to the poll title bar, the "1 of 1 (100%) voted" status, and the first question's progress bar. A red arrow points to the "End Polling" button.
